

☞ WANTED, at our office, flour, wheat, corn meal, butter, cheese, tallow and pork in exchange for the News.

✍ We neglect home affairs, this week, to leave room for foreign sketches, of which we can give but few—fires and floods, murders and robberies, cholera and perplexity of nations are prevalent, concerning which we shall continue to sketch. From the best information yet obtained, it is believed that the House was four or five weeks in electing a Speaker and Clerk, and their progress since has well compared. Cholera has again appeared in the States. Hungary has fallen. General peace in Europe : and the present appearance is like a calm before a tornado.—More hereafter.
