

LETTERS PROTEST VETERAN OUSTING

Letters to the editors all over the country protested the ousting by an Arizona barber from his shop recently a wounded veteran of Japanese ancestry on crutches, reports in many of the leading papers in the country showed.

All types of persons condemned the act and offered their hospitality to Pvt. Raymond Matsuda, the wounded veteran.

The incident coupled with a letter from Pvt. George Saito to his father regarding the death in action of his brother Calvin was dramatized recently on radio station WMCA of New York City.

---