

Daily National Democrat.

JOHN R. RIDGE, Editor.

Office—Corner of Maiden Lane and 2d street

Agency Notice.—Mr. L. P. Faxon is our only advertising agent in San Francisco, to receive advertising copy, except for the same, and to transact business generally for the News. Office No 171, 2d Wash. street, corner (up-stairs) nearly opposite Maguire's Opera House.

MURKIN, E. R. DAVIDSON is our Agent in Sacramento, and is authorized to receive subscriptions and advertisements, and to receipt for the same. Office at 6 D. Street, corner Exchange, 5th street, between J and K, near the Post Office.

MARYSVILLE.

FRIDAY, AUG. 13, 1858.

"I have sworn on the altar of my country eternal fidelity to every form of Tyranny over the mind of man." THOS. JEFFERSON.

Democratic State Ticket.

For Members of Congress,

JOSEPH C. MCKIBBEN,

OF SIERA.

WILLIAM L. DUDLEY,

OF CALIFORNIA.

For Judge of the Supreme Court,

JOHN CURREY,

OF ROLAND.

For State Controller,

I. N. DAWLEY,

OF NEVADA.

For Clerk of Supreme Court,

H. U. JENNINGS,

OF BUTTE.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

For State Senator,

E. D. WHEELER.

For Joint Senator,

W. H. PARKS.

For Assemblyman,

C. E. DE LONG, M. FULLER,
J. S. SLINGERLAND, JOELSTODDARD,
JOHN WHEALDON.

Regular Yuba County Democratic Central Committee.

CHASE H. BRYAN, Chairman.

WM. M. PEARL, PETER RICE,

J. G. MCANON, WM. ELWELL.

COMMITTEE NOTICE.

There will be a meeting of the regular Democratic Central Committee, (appointed by the regular Democratic Convention), which met in Marysville on the 26th of July last) in Marysville, on Monday, the 15th inst., important business will be transacted. Members will please communicate.

A. S. RANDALL & CO.

TO OUR PATRONS.

There has been no change in the business department of this paper. Advertisements received by us as publishers of the DAILY NEWS will be continued in the DAILY NATIONAL DEMOCRAT, and subscribers will be furnished with the NATIONAL DEMOCRAT in its place, unless orders be received by us to discontinue the same.

A. S. RANDALL & CO.

THE THEATRE.—The Minstrels' popularity increases nightly. Last evening, in addition to the exquisite harmony of the vocal and instrumental music, Geo. Christy's piece, Woff, or the sensible monkey, was produced. Mr. Christy's impersonation of the monkey was remarkably natural, and drew down thunders of applause. He is certainly one of the best comedians on any stage. His negro droleries, which have for years drawn crowds together in New York, form but a small part of his power to amuse. He is a good actor, put him where you will.

Master Enginee has no rival in his line. He is the original, and no one has, as yet, attempted to imitate him.

Of the San Francisco Minstrels, there is no need to speak. All of us know them, and Marysville people are never better pleased than when listening to the deep bass of Sam Wells, or laughing at his jokes, or when there ears are greeted with the delightful singing of Campbell and Barker, the smooth tones of Lothian's violin, or the lively picking of the banjo of George Coss. No one who hath music in himself should fail to go and see this admirable troupe.

MARYSVILLE PARK COURSE.—The pacing match, advertised to take place yesterday, was brought to a sudden close after the first heat, which was easily won by Morg Miller. On the home stretch, in the second heat, Morg Miller broke and jumped on the back of the Oregon Pony, and he, not wishing to carry so much weight, suddenly "spilt" his driver, and kicking behind and before, broke the sulky. The judges decided that, as there was no distance in the race, it was a drawn game. We perceive that great preparations are going at the Park for the State Fair, and we can now boast of having the fastest stock at present in the State; first, there is the world renowned bay mare, "Princess," who is said to have trotted a mile in 2.24, and also the celebrated Marysville horse, Glencoie Chief; besides these, we have the great partners of the day, Fred Johnson and Dan Webster—horses that are renowned for their great speed and bottom. We understand that matches have been made, to come off during the State Fair, for all the best horses in the State.

RECORDERS' COURT.—L. Eckert was fined, on two charges for fast driving, $75; paid and discharged.

Frank Livingston, a notorious horse thief, was lodged in the station house, on Wednesday night. He was in charge of constable Catin, and was on his way from Shasta county, where he was arrested, to Indian Diggins, in El Dorado county, where he stole, some time ago, four horses.

At WORK.—Hon. J. C. McKibben and Wm. L. Dudley, the Democratic candidates for Congress, are already stumping the State. They are anxious to address the people of Stockton on Monday evening next. The people have everywhere received them with the wildest enthusiasm.

THE MEANING OF THE ZACKARY-MONTGOMERY AMENDMENTS.—There is a slight difference between the Crittenden-Montgomery Amendment and the Zackary-Montgomery Amendment. The one stayed the original Kansas policy of the President, and the other will certainly stay the President's party in this State. Our readers are aware that the Resolution which embodies the essence of the Leecompton doctrine, and which was incorporated into the Administration State Convention Platform, was introduced by the Sutter county Statesman. A contemporary defines the Zackary-Montgomery Amendment to this effect: "The people have a right to vote upon their organic law if they desire it, unless their Representatives object to it."

In San Francisco, William Thomas has commenced a suit for divorce from Melissa Thomas on the ground of desertion.

The Leecompton "hue and cry."—The Leecompton press are very much concerned for the Douglas men, lest they find themselves led off into "Black Republicanism." The change, according to their sapient notions, is going to be so gradual that the first thing the Douglas men know, they will have undergone a thorough transformation and each one of them wake up some fine morning, look in the glass and find himself a Black Republican! This is in effect to say to the Douglas men that they are fools, and that they do not know what they are about; so obtuse in intellect and in moral perceptions that they are ignorant of what kind of doctrine they are advocating, and that it is only the Leecompton men who have any sense and know what is national and conservative. Well, a sufficient answer to this is, that the Douglas Democracy stand on the Cincinnati Platform and the Kansas Nebraska Bill, while the Republicans have distinctly endorsed in State Convention their old National Platform of 1856, and declared their intention to stand by it at all hazards. That old platform emphatically asserts the right of Congress to prohibit the ingress of slaves into the Territories of the United States.—Now what do the Cincinnati Platform and the Kansas Nebraska Bill set forth? Why, the very reverse of the Republican doctrine. The difference is as vast as the ocean's breadth between the two hemispheres, and however smart a man might be in urging it upon a Douglas man, no living being but a human jackass would believe that there was any identity, or the most distant approximation to an identity, between the two parties. One believes that Congress has a right to prohibit the ingress of slaves into the Territories—the other that Congress has not. One believes that the doctrine of popular sovereignty ought only be carried out where it went against them, still it was regular, and was conducted in accordance with Democratic usage. The restless and turbulent spirits who always bolt what they don't exactly like, will, of course, leave the Democratic party at this time, as they have often done before, (at least such of them as were Democrats) while all true Democrats will, as heretofore, support the ticket presented to them by the majority of their convention. We defay any man to make the least showing of irregularity in the action of the late Democratic Convention. The fire-eaters voted with the Nebraska Democrats all day, and in the vain hope, too, of electing a divided State delegation. At night, enraged at the spirit of harmony which had characterized the day's proceedings, despite their efforts to create disturbances, they brought in Sutter county, and after the convention had adjourned sine die, appointed a bolting committee to call a bolter convention. The present Leecompton faction of Yuba county bolted previous to the action of the Democratic State Convention.

The fact is, that good Administration men, who mean to be honest and fair, say publicly that they cannot consent to bolt the Democratic County Convention, because, although it went against them, still it was regular, and was conducted in accordance with Democratic usage.

The restlessness and turbulent spirits who always bolt what they don't exactly like, will, of course, leave the Democratic party at this time, as they have often done before, (at least such of them as were Democrats) while all true Democrats will, as heretofore, support the ticket presented to them by the majority of their convention. We defay any man to make the least showing of irregularity in the action of the late Democratic Convention. But, how do they agree? Stephen A. Douglas and his party opposed it, because the attempt to force the Leecompton Constitution upon the people of Kansas was violative of the spirit and intent and letter of the Kansas Nebraska Act, which embodied a vital part of the Democratic creed. Wm. H. Seward and his party opposed it, first, because it was a slave convention, and fastened slavery irreversibly upon Kansas, and, secondly, because, inasmuch as the two meet at all or ever can meet. It is true, they agree in their opposition to the Leecompton Constitution. The fire-eaters voted with the Nebraska Democrats all day, and in the vain hope, too, of electing a divided State delegation. At night, enraged at the spirit of harmony which had characterized the day's proceedings, despite their efforts to create disturbances, they brought in Sutter county, and after the convention had adjourned sine die, appointed a bolting committee to call a bolter convention. The present Leecompton faction of Yuba county bolted previous to the action of the Democratic State Convention.

The time will be a meeting of the regular Democratic Central Committee, (appointed by the regular Democratic Convention), which met in Marysville on the 26th of July last) in Marysville, on Monday, the 15th inst., important business will be transacted. Members will please communicate.

A. S. RANDALL & CO.

The Mountains rejoicing.—We have received a letter from Long Bar (No. 1), dated August 11, which gives a glowing account of a most enthusiastic meeting of the Democracy, held at that place on the evening of the previous evening. Full two hundred mudsills, says our correspondent, assembled upon one hour's notice. E. D. Wheeler and C. E. De Long, who are to represent us at Sacramento next winter, addressed the crowd, and their many and eloquent utterances of the truth was listened to with delight by the applauding audience.—There are but three Leecomptons on the bar, as far as can be ascertained. Judge McKenzie presided over the meeting, which was held at the town hall.

This is great news, for it is the first gun.

We shall be able to give our readers reliable accounts of the public pulse at Timbuctoo, New York Flat, Camptonville and Foster's Bar in a few days.

NIGGER! NIGGER!—The Leecompton fanatics, driven to desperation by the firm position of the true D. Democracy, and having themselves been forced into opposing the Kansas Nebraska act, now denounce the author of that law, Stephen A. Douglas, and those who agree with him as abolitionists. If the acknowledgment, by intelligent Republicans, that the Kansas Nebraska law, fairly carried out, is sound doctrine, taunts that doctrine with niggerism, so be it. Show us a law to prohibit Republicans from changing their opinions as to the Nebraska act.

If what was Democracy in 1856 is Black Republicanism in 1858, let some argument be presented to establish the fact. The ery of nigger has had startling effects sometimes; but the white folks have a word to say this year, and are sure to be heard.

As we said before, we think it very likely that the Republicans will help us in whipping out the Leecompton party. They are under no obligations to us nor we to them. They can do as they please. We have no fusion with them. We have put none of their candidates on our ticket, though they have put one or two of ours on theirs. We cannot help that. If they have put them there, it was not because they were Republicans (for they are as good Democrats as ever breathed the breath of life) but simply because they were opposed to the Leecompton iniquity, and the Republicans prefer to see a honest Democrat, who will not abandon his own doctrine even if it does happen to operate in favor of a Free State, triumph, to seeing a faithless and recreant Democrat succeed who will not adhere to the principles of his party unless those principles operate in every instance in favor of slavery. If we were a Republican,—which, thank God, we are not,—we would act precisely in that way. We would ask no favors whatever from the Douglas Democracy, but we would just walk quietly to the polls and give the Administration a thundering kick in the region of the wind and "let her slide."

CONSISTENCY.—The Republican abuses J. C. McKibben because a Republican Convention nominated him for Congress after the Democratic Convention in Sacramento had given him the nomination for this office. That same paper supported, at the last election, J. W. Mandeville for State Controller, after the Republican Convention nominated that gentleman to this office, and afterwards President Buchanan endorsed the Republican nominee, by making him Surveyor General of the State.

RECORDERS' COURT.—L. Eckert was fined, on two charges for fast driving, $75; paid and discharged.

Frank Livingston, a notorious horse thief, was lodged in the station house, on Wednesday night. He was in charge of constable Catin, and was on his way from Shasta county, where he was arrested, to Indian Diggins, in El Dorado county, where he stole, some time ago, four horses.

At WORK.—Hon. J. C. McKibben and Wm. L. Dudley, the Democratic candidates for Congress, are already stumping the State. They are anxious to address the people of Stockton on Monday evening next. The people have everywhere received them with the wildest enthusiasm.

THE MEANING OF THE ZACKARY-MONTGOMERY AMENDMENTS.—There is a slight difference between the Crittenden-Montgomery Amendment and the Zackary-Montgomery Amendment. The one stayed the original Kansas policy of the President, and the other will certainly stay the President's party in this State. Our readers are aware that the Resolution which embodies the essence of the Leecompton doctrine, and which was incorporated into the Administration State Convention Platform, was introduced by the Sutter county Statesman. A contemporary defines the Zackary-Montgomery Amendment to this effect: "The people have a right to vote upon their organic law if they desire it, unless their Representatives object to it."

In San Francisco, William Thomas has commenced a suit for divorce from Melissa Thomas on the ground of desertion.

to the principle of the Kansas Nebraska Bill. All the lingering remnants of the Old Blue Light Federalists; all the war hoppers of monarchy afar off; all those Republicans, like Trainer W. Park, who think that the best way to break down Democratic principles and each one of them wake up some fine morning, look in the glass and find himself a Black Republican! This is in effect to say to the Douglas men that they are fools, and that they do not know what they are about; so obtuse in intellect and in moral perceptions that they are ignorant of what kind of doctrine they are advocating, and that it is only the Leecompton men who have any sense and know what is national and conservative. Well, a sufficient answer to this is, that the Douglas Democracy stand on the Cincinnati Platform and the Kansas Nebraska Bill, while the Republicans have distinctly endorsed in State Convention their old National Platform of 1856, and declared their intention to stand by it at all hazards.

The change, according to their sapient notions, is going to be so gradual that the first thing the Douglas men know, they will have undergone a thorough transformation and each one of them wake up some fine morning, look in the glass and find himself a Black Republican! This is in effect to say to the Douglas men that they are fools, and that they do not know what they are about; so obtuse in intellect and in moral perceptions that they are ignorant of what kind of doctrine they are advocating, and that it is only the Leecompton men who have any sense and know what is national and conservative. Well, a sufficient answer to this is, that the Douglas Democracy stand on the Cincinnati Platform and the Kansas Nebraska Bill, while the Republicans have distinctly endorsed in State Convention their old National Platform of 1856, and declared their intention to stand by it at all hazards.

The fact is, that good Administration men, who mean to be honest and fair, say publicly that they cannot consent to bolt the Democratic County Convention, because, although it went against them, still it was regular, and was conducted in accordance with Democratic usage.

The restlessness and turbulent spirits who always bolt what they don't exactly like, will, of course, leave the Democratic party at this time, as they have often done before, (at least such of them as were Democrats) while all true Democrats will, as heretofore, support the ticket presented to them by the majority of their convention. We defay any man to make the least showing of irregularity in the action of the late Democratic Convention. But, how do they agree?

Stephen A. Douglas and his party opposed it, because the attempt to force the Leecompton Constitution upon the people of Kansas was violative of the spirit and intent and letter of the Kansas Nebraska Act, which embodied a vital part of the Democratic creed. Wm. H. Seward and his party opposed it, first, because it was a slave convention, and fastened slavery irreversibly upon Kansas, and, secondly, because, inasmuch as the two meet at all or ever can meet. It is true, they agree in their opposition to the Leecompton Constitution. The fire-eaters voted with the Nebraska Democrats all day, and in the vain hope, too, of electing a divided State delegation. At night, enraged at the spirit of harmony which had characterized the day's proceedings, despite their efforts to create disturbances, they brought in Sutter county, and after the convention had adjourned sine die, appointed a bolting committee to call a bolter convention. The present Leecompton faction of Yuba county bolted previous to the action of the Democratic State Convention.

The time will be a meeting of the regular Democratic Central Committee, (appointed by the regular Democratic Convention), which met in Marysville on the 26th of July last) in Marysville, on Monday, the 15th inst., important business will be transacted. Members will please communicate.

A. S. RANDALL & CO.

The Mountains rejoicing.—We have received a letter from Long Bar (No. 1), dated August 11, which gives a glowing account of a most enthusiastic meeting of the Democracy, held at that place on the evening of the previous evening. Full two hundred mudsills, says our correspondent, assembled upon one hour's notice. E. D. Wheeler and C. E. De Long, who are to represent us at Sacramento next winter, addressed the crowd, and their many and eloquent utterances of the truth was listened to with delight by the applauding audience.—There are but three Leecomptons on the bar, as far as can be ascertained. Judge McKenzie presided over the meeting, which was held at the town hall.

This is great news, for it is the first gun.

We shall be able to give our readers reliable accounts of the public pulse at Timbuctoo, New York Flat, Camptonville and Foster's Bar in a few days.

NIGGER! NIGGER!—The Leecompton fanatics, driven to desperation by the firm position of the true D. Democracy, and having themselves been forced into opposing the Kansas Nebraska act, now denounce the author of that law, Stephen A. Douglas, and those who agree with him as abolitionists. If the acknowledgment, by intelligent Republicans, that the Kansas Nebraska law, fairly carried out, is sound doctrine, taunts that doctrine with niggerism, so be it. Show us a law to prohibit Republicans from changing their opinions as to the Nebraska act.

If what was Democracy in 1856 is Black Republicanism in 1858, let some argument be presented to establish the fact. The ery of nigger has had startling effects sometimes; but the white folks have a word to say this year, and are sure to be heard.

As we said before, we think it very likely that the Republicans will help us in whipping out the Leecompton party. They are under no obligations to us nor we to them. They can do as they please. We have no fusion with them. We have put none of their candidates on our ticket, though they have put one or two of ours on theirs. We cannot help that. If they have put them there, it was not because they were Republicans (for they are as good Democrats as ever breathed the breath of life) but simply because they were opposed to the Leecompton iniquity, and the Republicans prefer to see a honest Democrat, who will not abandon his own doctrine even if it does happen to operate in favor of a Free State, triumph, to seeing a faithless and recreant Democrat succeed who will not adhere to the principles of his party unless those principles operate in every instance in favor of slavery. If we were a Republican,—which, thank God, we are not,—we would act precisely in that way. We would ask no favors whatever from the Douglas Democracy, but we would just walk quietly to the polls and give the Administration a thundering kick in the region of the wind and "let her slide."

CONSISTENCY.—The Republican abuses J. C. McKibben because a Republican Convention nominated him for Congress after the Democratic Convention in Sacramento had given him the nomination for this office. That same paper supported, at the last election, J. W. Mandeville for State Controller, after the Republican Convention nominated that gentleman to this office, and afterwards President Buchanan endorsed the Republican nominee, by making him Surveyor General of the State.

RECORDERS' COURT.—L. Eckert was fined, on two charges for fast driving, $75; paid and discharged.

Frank Livingston, a notorious horse thief, was lodged in the station house, on Wednesday night.